Dear [redacted]

1. I refer to our recent telephone conversations and confirm that I will accompany the Head of my Service, Colin FIGURES, to call on [redacted] at 3.30 p.m. on Monday 20 June.

2. I know that Colin will regret missing the opportunity to call on Judge WEBSTER also at that time but he will have seen him recently and will also, I know, understand that the Judge has many other commitments.

3. Unfortunately I shall be out of Washington over most of the period between now and then and my assistant [redacted] will therefore contact you on my behalf to make detailed arrangements for our arrival at your Headquarters.

Yours ever [redacted]

VISIT BY DIRECTOR OF [redacted]

Colin FIGURES, our Director [redacted]
[redacted] will be visiting Washington in the middle of November.
If it is convenient he would like to visit your Headquarters for talks on 15 November. I would be grateful to know in principle whether this date would be convenient for you.
The details of the programme can be arranged later, but I think that he would wish to see Mr Adams, [redacted]

Dear [redacted]

VISIT BY Colin FIGURES

1. Colin FIGURES, who was recently appointed as the Deputy Head of our Service, is paying a visit to the USA in the week beginning 21 January 1980. In his present capacity he is primarily responsible for the Requirements and Production of our Service. In view of this he will not need to call on FCI desks on this occasion but would like to pay a courtesy call on [redacted]

[redacted] We would like to suggest that he should call on [redacted] at 1130 am on 23 January and subsequently entertain [redacted] to lunch.

2. We would be grateful if you could confirm that this visit will be possible and that [redacted] will be able to lunch.

Dear [REDACTED]

1. In answer to your query about the background of Mr Colin FIGURES, I hope the following particulars will be of use.

2. Colin Frederick FIGURES was born on 1 July 1925 and educated at King Edward's School, Birmingham and Cambridge University. He served in an Infantry Regiment in the British Army from 1943-48 and joined our Service in 1951. [REDACTED]

3. Among his recent senior appointments, he has been in charge of our [REDACTED] and has been Director for [REDACTED]. He is at present the Director with overall responsibility for Operations and Requirements, and Assistant Chief of our Service. He will take over as Chief on 1 August. [REDACTED]

4. He married in 1956: his wife's first name is [REDACTED] and he has three children. On a point of formality, the correct initials to follow his name are CMG and OBE in that order. [REDACTED]

5. You will recall that we do our best to protect the identity of our Chief for as long as possible. Nowadays, it invariably becomes fairly widely known within about a year, sometimes less, but we continue to go through the motions rather carefully, both because there are unfortunately strong security reasons for doing so, and because we still remain on a different footing from other [REDACTED]

/services

services in [redacted] (and most Western services generally) in the degree of deniability which we retain. We are therefore very grateful if allied liaison services, who naturally need to know our Chief's name at an early date, will take all reasonable precautions to prevent it becoming widely or unnecessarily known, even within their own ranks.

6. I shall be in touch fairly soon, regarding Mr FIGURES's forthcoming visit to the USA, which I hope will be early in November, when I would of course like him to have a full opportunity to meet Judge WEBSTER and other senior staff.

Yours ever,

PC
① I am writing to confirm the arrangement for Sir Colin Figures, KCMB, OBE, the [redacted] Co-ordinator, to call on your Director at 10.00am on Wednesday 14 May. I understand that there is a possibility that the Director may have to be out of Washington that week. If that turns out to be the case, I should be grateful if you would let me know, so that we may consider the possibility of Sir Colin seeing one of the Executive Assistant Directors instead.
